Get online and stay safe

Being on the internet is just like real life – and that means you have to do some simple things to keep yourself, your information and your family safe.

We can help you to get to grips with computers and the internet – and learn how to stay safe online.

Visit us at:

Not local? Call free on 0800 77 1234 to find a place to get online near you, or find out more by visiting www.learnmyway.com and trying our online safety course for yourself.